

Packing and sending reaps rewards

ANDREW and Sharon Goldsworthy, local franchise owners of Pack & Send Hobart, were recent runners-up in the Victoria/Tasmania franchisee awards category of the 2009 MYOB excellence in franchising awards.

Winners of the Pack & Send franchisee of the year award in 2008, Pack & Send International nominated Pack & Send Hobart for the prestigious gong.

Andrew attributes the business's great achievements to a combination of business nous, community and family involvement.

"Following the Pack & Send business system has always served us well," he said.

"Most importantly, this is a family business, which has been the foundation of our success.

"I think a lot of it comes down to working as part of a team and supporting each other."

Pack & Send International CEO Michael Paul said: "Andrew and Sharon's achievements have been outstanding over the last six years.

"Their recognition as runners-up of the Victoria/Tasmania franchisee of the year awards and winners of the 2008 Pack & Send franchisee of the year awards is a testament to their hard work and determination.

"We are very proud to have them as part of our team."

Pack & Send Hobart is also involved in sharing its success with the local community, through membership at the Rotary Club of Moonah and donations to the Special Children's Christmas Party, the Arts Centre in Salamanca and the Lions of Hobart Circus Quirkus, to name a few.

"We're grateful to be able to give back to the community we live in and thank the local community for their support over the years," Andrew said.

"We're very proud to be runners-up and look forward to continuing to service the Hobart area we love."

Pack & Send Hobart operates under franchise from award-winning Pack & Send International and specialises in transporting fragile, large, awkward and valuable goods.
